

NEWSLETTER

CONTENTS

Festival of Colours	1
Women's Day Pre-primary	1
World Wild Life Day	2
UKG Graduation Day	2

FESTIVAL OF COLOURS

Little pre-primary kids danced with joy to Holi tunes, twirling and giggling as colours splashed everywhere in the playground. With bright smiles, they made handmade colouring placards, scribbling rainbows and flowers on paper to celebrate the festival. Holi fun sparkled with their happy crafts and bouncy steps!

WOMEN'S DAY

On International Women's Day, teachers and parents brightened the celebration with engaging competitions and activities like thrilling paper craft, races, creative clay modelling contests, and fun workshops, sparking joy and creativity all around. They showcased hidden talents while picking up new skills and bonding over empowering stories. The vibrant event concluded with prizes, leaving everyone inspired and beaming with smiles!

WORLD WILD LIFE DAY

Pre-primary students roared into World Wildlife Day with wild fun, donning colourful animal masks as lions, elephants, and tigers, and dancing energetically to jungle beats that shook the stage. Their animal parades left everyone astonished and cheering, spreading joy and awareness about saving our furry friends. The little wild ones ended with a group roar for wildlife protection, their big smiles lighting up the hearts of all!

UKG GRADUATION DAY

UKG tiny grads beamed in shimmering caps and gowns, strutting down a starry aisle to cheers from proud families during their magical Graduation Day parade. They dazzled with a group flash mob dance, collecting shiny diplomas amid hugs and applause. A memory booth with props capped the festivities, sealing promises of big dreams for our little scholars.

